German composers, and to crown it all they had an eloquentist with a German name from the other side of the line.

The present is a very good time for choir leaders and organists to find out. If they didn't know it before, that there is some grand music that is not German; some of the finest choral music ever composed was written by British composers—Elgar, Barby, Bridge, Sullivan, etc.; some of the grandest organ music was composed by a Frenchman, Dubois. These names occur to me as I write; there are a host of others, would our talented choir leaders but take the trouble to search for them.

The trouble has been that we have in the past been so apt to ape many German ideas, and particularly so in music. Let us break away from it and try and create something ourselves, or at least put a bias on Germanic composers and support our friends.

Thanking you for the space in your valuable paper, Yours truly,

Hamilton, March 23, 1916.

FIRST OBJECT WIN THE WAR

Lloyd George Says Everything Else Secondary.

Would Obliterate Idea of Trade Revenge.

London, March 23.—"Our first object must be the successful conclusion of the war, to which everything must be subordinated," said David Lloyd George, Minister of Munitions, in a vigorous speech in the House of Commons, when Sir Henry Dalglish demanded a declaration of the British policy at the forthcoming economic conference of the Allies at Paris. Sir Henry asked that the delegates should be empowered to state that there never henceforth could British trade relations with Germany be the same as before the war.

Mr. Lloyd George replied: "If we are to organize trade for generations to come, must be done deliberately and carefully. It is not merely a question of tariffs. It is the war the setting of any fiscal system, whether free trade or protection, will be a wrenching consolation. There are things bigger than fiscal questions, things which go to the very root of human life and liberty—everything which constitutes the self-respect of men."

"We must not subordinate human liberty and self-respect to the civilization of mankind to any trade policy. When we consider trade, we must consider the human element."

"I do not think that we can ever have the same conditions as before the war."

German composers, and to crown it all they had an eloquentist with a German name from the other side of the line.

The present is a very good time for choir leaders and organists to find out. If they didn't know it before, that there is some grand music that is not German; some of the finest choral music ever composed was written by British composers—Elgar, Barby, Bridge, Sullivan, etc.; some of the grandest organ music was composed by a Frenchman, Dubois. These names occur to me as I write; there are a host of others, would our talented choir leaders but take the trouble to search for them.

The trouble has been that we have in the past been so apt to ape many German ideas, and particularly so in music. Let us break away from it and try and create something ourselves, or at least put a bias on Germanic composers and support our friends.

Thanking you for the space in your valuable paper, Yours truly,

FIRST OBJECT WIN THE WAR

Lloyd George Says Everything Else Secondary.

Would Obliterate Idea of Trade Revenge.

London, March 23.—"Our first object must be the successful conclusion of the war, to which everything must be subordinated," said David Lloyd George, Minister of Munitions, in a vigorous speech in the House of Commons, when Sir Henry Dalglish demanded a declaration of the British policy at the forthcoming economic conference of the Allies at Paris. Sir Henry asked that the delegates should be empowered to state that there never henceforth could British trade relations with Germany be the same as before the war.

Mr. Lloyd George replied: "If we are to organize trade for generations to come, must be done deliberately and carefully. It is not merely a question of tariffs. It is the war the setting of any fiscal system, whether free trade or protection, will be a wrenching consolation. There are things bigger than fiscal questions, things which go to the very root of human life and liberty—everything which constitutes the self-respect of men."

"We must not subordinate human liberty and self-respect to the civilization of mankind to any trade policy. When we consider trade, we must consider the human element."

"I do not think that we can ever have the same conditions as before the war."

Scullers Are Confident of Victory Over Fast Warton Team To-Night

Despite the fact that the Howling Club are forced to win tonight's game from Watlton by twelve goals in order to win the Northern League senior championship, the club are not at all concerned that they, who is not content of doing this, so tonight's battle of the Arena should be a hockey battle from start to finish. In the game at Watlton it must be admitted, Watlton was handicapped owing to the loss of several of their good players, and it was necessary for them to take along several youngsters, who proved far too small in stature for the Watlton team. In spite of the fact that the Watlton team, one of the best in the country, has been criticised, the official announced that Watlton has a very tight team, but he thinks Watlton can beat them to-night, and by a big margin, but it is doubtful if they will overcome the result. It is only too good to see Watlton, who are the only team to have been successful in making a better record here, for from beginning to end the Watlton team has been playing a very businesslike game. As for our own youngsters, could not we have some of the Watlton players? Some other members of the Watlton team once they got going, but with Watlton's record, it is doubtful if they will play to-night, unless will be different.

Members of the team say that Ashby is without a doubt the fastest player in the game at the moment. Ray stated right after the game that he was "a little bit slower" on several occasions, coaxed him out of the net and he was able to get the ball back. There are other members on the Warriors team that appeared to be a little bit slower than Ashby in this area here to-night, but it is not fair to say that they are slower against the regular team. The Warriors team leader, according to Russell, is a very good player. He has a chance whatever of getting him into the game, but he is not really that good going on right near him.

Tickets for this game have been going fairly well and everything points to a big crowd for to-night. The game will evidently turn into a real battle, but with Hamilton fighting to lose the lead, and the visitors fighting to tie the score, the odds are for the win on Wednesday night was no fluke, the fans are assured of some fast hockey. Mauro, of London, who handled the Elmiras game here, has been selected by the N. L. to handle this game, so both teams are assured of an even break.

It is doubtful if either Riverside or Aurora Leve will come here now, but the Herlin Union Jacks are anxious to meet the local juniors, and arrangements will most likely be made for a "senior" session in the near future. Aurora Leve and Riverside were to have sided or written the local club this week, announcing the dates they proposed. But if no word has been received from them, so it looks as if both games are off.

Harry Reid took part in the game at Warton, but did not show his regular speed, owing to the fact that he was under the weather. Harry was selected to play on the All-Star West team, and he was chosen to play the night, but through some misunderstanding he was not informed of this by the selectors until they reached his home. He was disappointed, but Reid learned that Joe Smith had been substituted in his place he was somewhat peeved over the matter, and he feared that if it were known that he had been dropped from the Toronto game, it would reflect adversely on his standing as a mysterious "enemy," who, twice before, had caused him to be dropped from the team.

Since that time she asserts, she effected a reconciliation with her husband, and she says that upon crossing from Canada, Buffalo the immigration authorities did not ask her to register, and, further, that none of the necessary registration papers were required.

Tigers Will Hold Big Rally at the Temple Theatre This Evening.

Everything is in readiness for the big Tingo rally to be held at the Temple Theatre this evening, immediately after the last show, and the players have left nothing undone in order to make this rally the best ever. The five boxing bouts on the card will bring together the best of Hamilton, and the most boxing dished up in this city in some time. The first of the bouts of the evening will bring together Ted Pitton, the Toronto favorite, and Peas Scott, the local lightweight. This battle alone is worth a visit to the place, and this and the four others in addition to a fine musical programme, will be thrown in free of charge. Scotty Arrol will also be seen in action and another big pull is expected for the second bout between the two boys from Hamilton, the two who were the winners of the first two draws to a draw in Toronto early in the winter, but since the boys have both improved, and are now in the best of shape, the odds are for a draw from start till finish. For those interested we print the programme:

Musical selection—Dominion Harry Quartette.
Boxing—Charlie Christie, ex-116 lb. champion, Toronto, vs. Armo Hamilton.
Boxing—Danny Johnston, 145 lb. champion, Toronto, vs. Alwood Maxwell, Hamilton.
Solo—Pia. Stenhouse, 20th Battalion.
Boxing—Pee Wee Adams, Toronto, vs. McCracken, C.M.R., Hamilton.
Boxing—Frank Russell, 125 lb. champion, Toronto, vs. Watson Hamilton.
Boxing—Ted Pitton, ex-135 lb. champion, Toronto, vs. Peas Scott, Hamilton.

Montreal, March 25.—The composition of the St. Paul Hockey Club, of St. Paul, Minn., challenging for the Art Ross cup, has been thoroughly exposed by the cup trustees here as a sample of the teams masquerading in the United States as amateurs, and exposed as such by certain Montreal and Ottawa players who, outside of the fold of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and the Amateur Athletic Union. In a statement issued in explanation of the disqualification of the St. Paul team, the trustees "Riley" Herd and "Bert" Dore, make public this exclusive information.

"On the above assurance, which we urged to be correct, we decided to allow all three to play, but with the understanding that he would make further investigations.

"I wired A. L. Ferguson, vice-president of the Amateur Athletic Association, of which the St. Paul club is a member, requesting him to advise us if in his opinion Bonney and Wellington were eligible to play in an amateur trophy game. To our great surprise, Ferguson said that according to his opinion neither Bonney nor Wellington were eligible to play in any amateur club. However, as we had no direct proof of these two players were professionals, we could not deny

"We found, though, that Moananui played as professional on the Crescen-Club of Halifax in the Maritime League in 1915, after having received a letter from the league officials that he was not to be regarded as a professional. The grounds that we have thrown out this same."

"Whereas it might, appear that we were rather severe on the St. Paul club in taking such a step, it is in light of the fact that an example is made of some of these professional players who are making money in the States by participating in professional carnivals."

"We might also add that we have positive proof that Whelan, another St. Paul player, was a professional in the fact club, and, with the exception of one or two exceptions, we are convinced that the balance of the St. Paul team were not professionals, and that they came from any other little association in America."

"We trust in future that any amateur club challenging for this trophy will make a better showing than the St. Paul team, and that there will be no out-and-out professionals in their line-up."

Cleveland, Ohio, March 24.—Charged with having entered the United States in violation of the immigration laws, Mrs. Margaret M. Trimble, wife of Herbert J. (Mike) Trimble, star owner of the Cleveland Casino, was today taken to the Federal House of Detention, where she will remain here to-day. Mrs. Trimble faced possible deportation for the third time to her home in Brantford, Canada.

"A woman's place is with her husband," was only definite statement Mrs. Trimble made to-day, as she sewed up a table cover in the office of the matron of the jail. She hinted at a mysterious "enemy." She said she was "being caused by" to be sent back to Canada.

About two years ago Mrs. Trimble filed suit for divorce. Since that time she asserts, she effected a reconciliation with her husband. ### Banquet to Follow His Victory—Willard Will Weigh About 250 Pounds.

(By Times Special Wire.)

New York, March 24.—The rapid approach of the time when Willard and Moran must enter the ring and risk their prestige as champion and challenger has caused the two principals in the eagerly contrasted way. Willard's easy-going, good-natured attitude and manners have not changed to any extent, and the result of the best is seldom mentioned unless someone comes to him insate upon talking about the outcome.

Willard's only new feature is a new capy subject with a few remarks which are non-committal, although indicating that to his mind, at least, there is to be but one result, and that is a knockout.

stage the opening contest at Madison Square Garden.

This plan will bring Jim Morán's fighting into the limelight of the semi-fine ring around the middle, and the main bout about 10 p.m.

Willard was weighed yesterday and was found to weigh 204½ pounds. The champion said he was not going to lose weight, he gets into the ring to-morrow night and will fight as he is, although he will ease up a little after the first round.

Willard said he would like to see Nim to go to the garden.

Moran worked only in the morning for the benefit of the brigade yesterday, and cut down sparring to two rounds.

confident he is, however, of defeating Willard either on points or a knockout, that he has engaged Cassius to fight him on the 15th and to be held immediately after the bout on Saturday night. When someone called his attention to the fact that he was scheduled to fight at Reno in 1910 before his fight with Jack Johnson, and never entered the banquet hall, he said simply that he would be different this time, and that the celebration would begin at 11.30

Willie Lewis, his trainer-in-chief, claims that Moran has never been in such superb physical condition for any previous bout and that this supreme confidence and rather grouchy attitude of his principal is the best indication that Moran is fit to fight faster, better and with greater chance of winning decisively than ever before in his ring

There is a wide difference of opinion among fight followers regarding the wisdom of the move. But one view of the bout has a special appeal. The advance ticket sale for the fight made it necessary to handle the crowds, indicating that the greatest gathering of boxing fans that has ever taken place in the city will be on hand at Madison Square Garden to witness the fight.

Will the police and fire department authorities be planning for an all-time record crowd? Will the fire be able to handle the thousands without trouble or confusion? In addition, there will be 100 police officers in uniform to handle the five defunctives. In addition to twenty firemen in uniform. The detectives will be on duty in the water park and along the "no smoking" rule, and for the danger of congestion at any point.

If the State Boxing Commission adheres to its announced plan of requiring the fight to be held in the three-four-round bouts and one straight round bout, the big event will be a record crowd. The event will be a record crowd.

Riversides Won Last Game From Monarchs-- Score Was 8 to

Toconito, March 21.—That the brand of hockey played by the O. R. A. is just as good as that of the amateur teams of the west was demonstrated last night at the Arena, where the O. R. A. defeated the Monarchs, of Winnipeg, ex-Alien Cup holders, by 5 to 1. The game was but an exhibition affair, as was the one played a week ago last night, when the winners, which results in a thrash.

BOTH GOALIES VERY WEAK

It was by no means as good an exhibition of the winter pastime as given by the two teams in the previous year. There was little sensational hockey shown for the reason that the checking was very close. The large score was due to the poor play of the goalkeepers. Collect, in the Riverside net, scored four goals in the first half. Several long shots were in the net during the first period. In the second period no goals were scored. The game was a shambles, fell to pieces and used bad hockey.
